SYNOPSIS

A Short Film About Smoking, in a humorous way, concentrates on a young woman's life centred around her addiction to tobacco and sex. We explore how she is aware of her addictions and as with many addicts, finds kicking the habit a hard reality.

BIOGRAPHY

A Short Film About Smoking is written, directed and produced by Chilo Eribenne. She is a one time member of pop group S'Express and is still writing and releasing records. She also comes from a television and theatre background where she has appeared in productions from the BBC to the London stage.
